

Skit Scripts

Contagious Disease Ward Skit

The scene takes place in the waiting room of a doctor of contagious and communicable diseases, Dr. Ringworm, M.D.

- Have four chairs and a stand for magazines or books.
- In walks a person (a) with an itch which they scratch periodically in different places.
- They grab a magazine & attempt to read but they are disturbed periodically by their itch.
- After a while, a second person (B) comes in with a serious hand twitch. B sits next to A.
- B gradually starts to scratch with the itch, while A's hand starts to twitch. When it has been well established that they have contracted each other's' disease.
- A third person enters with a serious leg twitch.
- Pretty soon all three have the hand twitch, leg twitch, and itch all over.
  - Add more motions/people if needed (eye twitch, sticking tongue in and out, sniffing, making weird noises etc.)
- The last contagious person comes in bouncing all over the place and shaking every muscle in their body. The actions of the four people become more frantic and are bouncing around in their chairs.
- Then a person dressed like a pregnant lady strolls in casually and the others scramble for their lives.

Emergency Broadcast System Skit

- The announcer says” This is a test of the Camp Silver Lake emergency broadcast system. This is only a test.
- Group: everyone hums a very high pitched tone similar to the tone on the radio/tv just before an emergency broadcast is given.
- The announcer then says “This has been a test of the Camp Silver Lake emergency broadcast system. If this had been an actual emergency, this is what you would hear.”
- Group: everyone starts screaming and running around in a panic then run away back to your spot in the audience.
