TLC Roles:

Individuals can apply to serve in a variety of roles depending on their commitment preference.

Council Members - Most tasks will be general to all of TLC. Members will be learning the ropes of the state program and will serve an integral role supporting statewide events.

Committee Members - Will serve on one of seven committees. Tasks will be laid out by committee chair and by other committee members. Members will be responsible for completing committee work by set deadlines.

Committee Chairs - Must oversee all committee work done by their members. Will serve as the connection between officers and committee members. Must submit all committee work and updates to officer team and/or advisors.

Officers - Tasks include planning and running meetings and serving as a “youth voice” for statewide programming. Officers will also carry out specific officer duties as assigned.

Jr. Advisors - Responsible for overseeing an entire program or event. Must work closely with Advisors on projects or assignments, and oversee the Region Representative program.

TLC Opportunities:

State Fair Events

Ohio 4-H Teen Leadership Council Members help with numerous events at the Ohio State Fair.

TLC Reaches Out

Members of the council are given the materials and resources to teach the TLC Reaches Out Curriculum throughout the state. Lessons included in this curriculum include: Learning to Learn, Presenting the Best Even Better, Older Youth Opportunities, Putting the Pizazz in Public Speaking, Service Learning, Parliamentary Procedure Basics, and Team Building.

Additional Committees

Opportunity to plan Sessions and Teen Luncheon at Ohio 4-H Conference as well as 4-H Promotional Booth at Ohio State Fair.

Region Representatives

Ohio 4-H Teen Leadership Council members can apply to become Region Representatives. These Representatives travel across their region to talk to County 4-H Programs and Clubs about topics from the TLC Reaches Out Curriculum.

National 4-H Conference

At National 4-H Conference participants work in Roundtables where they give government agencies their perspective on issues. Outside of Roundtables the conference also hosts a variety of workshops, sessions, and activities with delegates from across the country.

4-H Foundation Board

Members are eligible to apply to be a Youth Representative on the Ohio 4-H Foundation Board. These representatives help The Ohio 4-H Foundation Board review proposals and distribute endowment interests to help better 4-H youth development.
