Announcements

Region Representatives:

The Ohio 4-H Teen Leadership is in its second year of a new program called Region Representatives in which current council members and committee members will have the opportunity to gain new experiences in leadership. Each Region Representative will serve as a face for TLC throughout the state by reaching out to extension educators to speak to junior fair boards, camp counseling groups, and teen leaders. Their programming will include the newly-revised TLC Reaches Out Curriculum, which can cover Older Youth Opportunities, Parliamentary Procedure, and many other useful topics.

Carving New Ideas

By: Maddie Allman, TLC Jr. Advisor

Carving New Ideas (CNI) is a workshop designed for older youth grades 8-12. Held at 4-H Camp Ohio, Carving New Ideas is a fun-filled 4-H camp focused on developing leadership, reflection, goal-setting, and other life skills among campers. CNI is hosted by The Ohio State University's Collegiate 4-H Club each November in the cool, fall season. This year's camping dates are November 15-17, 2019 and the cost of attendance is $65.00.

The theme for this year's CNI workshop is "The Future of 4-H." Campers are asked to reflect on their future, whether that be in 4-H, their education, or career. Carving New Ideas is a great workshop to attend if you have questions about your future and/or how to get there. The counselors for Carving New Ideas are all college students themselves and are there to help youth navigate the next steps forward.

Although this year's registration has been closed, OSU Collegiate 4-H and campers across the state are already looking forward to next year's camp. Looking forward to the future, Carving New Ideas looks for your help and participation. Collegiate 4-H at The Ohio State University wants to know what topics and ideas you have for CNI. Please take the time to fill out this survey (even if you have never been) in hopes to make Carving New Ideas better for everyone!

Committee Happenings

Advocacy

The Advocacy committee is currently creating a newsletter about what is happening in 4-H statewide. They are also writing their O4HC letter to invite others to attend our conference. A Statehouse tour is also in the works to meet with legislators.

Communications

The Communications committee is continuing work on the TLC Insider, which will be published monthly. Member Bios will be sent to all TLC members and advisors to complete. Committee assignments were also discussed.

Community Service

The Community Service committee is planning on making jean dog toys at the November meeting. They are requesting that old pairs of jeans and fabric scissors be brought. The committee is also planning a service project for O4HC.

Fundraising

The Fundraising committee is working on planning regional restaurant nights to expand inclusion in statewide fundraisers. A holiday online sale has been discussed along with a cow pie bingo.

Morale

The morale committee planned activities for the November meeting, which will include blind hand-turkey drawing and thanksgiving cards. They also created the "TLC's Rising Family" competition in which families will compete for points.

Social Media

The Social Media committee is planning Member Monday posts to highlight individual TLC members. They will also post member accomplishments throughout the year and plan on using Pinterest more frequently. Instagram polls will replace Think It Thursday and Facebook Lives are planned.

State Outreach

The State Outreach committee is contacting states to plan visits. The committee is applying for grants to visit other states and is hoping to get in contact with all 50 states.
