MISSION OF THE OHIO 4-H PROGRAM

4-H youth development education creates positive environments for diverse youth and adults to reach their fullest potential as capable, competent, caring and contributing citizens. In support of this mission we will:

- provide formal and non-formal community-focused experiential learning;
- develop skills and values that benefit youth throughout life;
- enhance career exploration and decision making;
- foster leadership and volunteerism in youth and adults;
- build internal and external partnerships for programming and funding;
- strengthen families and communities; and
- apply research-based knowledge and land grant university resources.

4-H MEMBERSHIP AND PROGRAM

Ohio 4-H membership guidelines:

Ohio 4-H membership is based on a child's age and grade as of January 1 of the current project year. Eligibility for Cloverbud participation begins when a child is enrolled in Kindergarten and is five years old. Eligibility for participation in 4-H projects and competitive events begins when a child is age 8 and in the 3rd grade. Any youth age 9 or above is eligible for project membership, regardless of grade level. Membership requires enrollment in an authorized Ohio 4-H club or group under the direction of an OSU Extension professional or an approved adult volunteer. A youth's 4-H eligibility ends December 31 the year he or she turns 19. Joining Ohio 4-H is a privilege and responsibility for individuals and is subject to the Ohio 4-H Code of Conduct and applicable policies of The Ohio State University.

4-H members live in urban, suburban and rural areas. They participate in a wide variety of informal educational projects and activities dealing with areas such as agriculture, home economics, natural resources, science, and related subjects. The main requirements are a willingness to "learn by doing" and a desire "to make the best better", the 4-H motto.

The program is under the direct supervision of Ohio State University Extension, The Ohio State University, and the United States Department of Agriculture. Over 20,000 local volunteers serve as mentors and advisors to more than 280,000 youth in Ohio.

Each person exhibiting or participating in the 4-H Department must be a 4-H member in 2021 and be enrolled in the project in which he or she is exhibiting or participating, except demonstrations, safety/health speaking, health and safety skits and livestock judging contests. All projects must have been developed, produced or made in the current 4-H year.
2. All 4-H members entered and/or exhibiting at The Ohio State Fair must also have met eligibility requirements for exhibiting at their County or Independent Fair as certified by the County Extension Educator's signature on the entry form.

It further reserves the right to determine unforeseen matters not covered by these rules, to amend or add to these rules as in its judgment it may determine and to withdraw all premium offerings in all departments should any emergency exist and circumstances demand it.

Failure to submit this form will hold up payment of premium monies you will in this department.

RULE VIOLATIONS

In the question of a rule violation the following due process will be used: The exhibitor and/or parties involved will be questioned by Fair officials. If it is felt a violation has occurred Fair officials will make recommendations to the committee members of the Ohio Exposition commission that are appointed to that particular department.

After the committee hears the case, and recommendations are presented by the Fair officials, they will decide if the case should be brought before the full Commission.

In the decision of a case being brought before the Commission, all parties involved will be notified of a hearing date with all parties having the right to present their case.

Upon hearing the case the Ohio Expositions Commission will make a ruling.

When satisfactory evidence has been obtained by the Ohio State Fair Management that any of the rules have violated, the exhibitor and/or exhibitor's family may be barred from showing in any future Ohio State Fairs. The minimum number of years for a barment is three (3) years before the right to a review. In case any premium shall have been awarded to the exhibitor in violation of this rule, the Ohio State Fair Management will require the exhibitor to refund all premiums, trophies, awards, ribbons, and sale money under such violation.
